

It must be getting close to curling season once again, the ice crew is hard at work misting the sand and freezing the base, maybe have they even put on the first small flood by now. So it won't be too long before we start to get the old aches and pains from throwing the first few rocks. Mark October 11th on your calendar for the first night the ice is scheduled to be ready, it's the Free Clinic that night and things start in earnest on the 15th with the Early Bird.....It seems some people have been wondering how to get their membership forms into the club, the best time would be at the Open House scheduled for next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights from 7:00 to 9:00 each night, people from the membership Committee will be on hand to take memberships.....Know anyone who wants to try curling just to see what it is all about. The curling club in conjunction with the Town is running a series of curling clinics set to accommodate all ages. The details can be found in the Town's Leisure Guide. Look for programs 1882,1883,1918,1920 and 1921. Registration must be done through the Town.....Want to buy a share in the Bradford Curling Club, these are available through Barb Dafoe at a cost of $ 100.00, plus a small administration fee. You can easily save that amount over a short period of time through reduced membership rates and pro shop purchases.....On behalf of the BCC I would like to thank all 24 people who volunteered and came out to work in our Volunteer Work Week. There was a lot of work done, which needed to be prior to the start of the upcoming season, all it takes is a few people working together, using some elbow grease, and the results can be amazing.....Peter Davy still needs one eight person team to fill the inaugural 'CRAZY 8's' bonspiel scheduled for Saturday October 27th, information can be found on the home page of the website or by talking to Peter.....Want to know what is happening at the club, on what day and at what time, check out the Calendar on the website. All the information is now there for this season, what night leagues start, when there is a bonspiel and any other information pertinent to the curling season. If you see something missing send the information to the webmaster and it will be included.....Need a place to hold a meeting, party, small informal get together again check out the website for rental information, simply go to the home page and click on Rental Information at the top of the page and click on the link for anything information you may need.....Until next time, bring a friend out to the Free Clinic scheduled for Thursday October 11th, it runs from 7:00 to 9:00 and like it says it is FREE, maybe they will end up joining the club.
