

Well I am starting to get the itch, got back on Wednesday and went to club Thursday night ending up curling in the Early Bird, went over to King to watch the Dominion play downs on Friday, so bring it on, I am ready.....A McGregor meat fundraiser is in progress, information is on the website and at the bar, make sure to fill out your order form for this great product by November 9th, and stock up for the Holiday season.....The date for the Crazy 8's bonspiel had to be changed to November 10th, Peter Davy still needs entries so if you are interested talk to him. Information is also on the website and on the bulletin board.....League curling starts on Monday the 22nd, check the website for league schedules.....The ice really looks good, hats off to the Ice Crew, and from what I experienced Thursday night it is running and curling pretty good. Had some good comments on getting back to the traditional ring colors.....We still need people to step up and get involved, Russ Gale is looking for volunteers to sit on the Board of Directors and the AGM is set for October 28, this is the date the new Board takes over. I am sure Russ would like to hear from you.....Latest membership figures indicate that the men's CYOR is the same as last year as is the Ladies CYOR, both leagues experienced a small turnover. Have not heard from the Mixed leagues or Ladies Tuesday morning leagues but I am sure they could use curlers. Contact Carolyn Johnstone for the Mixed and Anna Royce for the Day Ladies. If you would like send an email to the enquiry address on the website and it will be forwarded....The Sunday Sinners leagues are nearly organized, play starts on November 4th, if you would like to play, once again contact Peter Davy, I do not know if he needs any team entries but I am sure you could curl in one of the leagues as a single entry.....The first night of the Learn to Curl program is set for Sunday (21st), this is a four week program and was the stepping stone for last year's Beginners League, which brought 32 new curlers into the club. We have about half of that for this year and hopefully these people will take to the game like last year's did.....The Youth program also has a Learn to Curl program starting Sunday. If you have a child who would like to curl, but did not register for the clinic, you can show up anyway and talk to Peter Fudge. It all starts at 2:00 with Youth registration.....By the way the website address for our club site, in case you did not know, is www.bradfordcurlingclub.ca.....Until next time, I am going to sound like a broken record, but, we are a Volunteer club, we need your involvement at many levels. I am sure each of us has a talent which we can lend to the club at some capacity. Talk to a Director, league chair or your skip and I am sure they will steer you in the right direction.
