Vol. 3 - Issue 6

How about that for snow, I looked at a picture from December 2007 and it looked exactly the same and I will bet that is the last big snow fall we had, it was nice though, once you got by the shoveling.....Our sponsor this issue is Julie Carrique of the Kettlebell Club located at 16 John Street We have two more curlers going on to a Provincial this week, on an individual basis, former curlers in our Junior program are going to championships with their respective schools. Emily Donnelle will be in London wearing Sir Sanford Fleming colours in the Ontario college play downs, while Katie Fudge, not to be outdone by her brothers, will be in Guelph, as part of the Queens University team playing in the Ontario university championships. Good curling girls....,The previously mentioned Fudge brothers, Ian and Connor, along with Jordan Kight, will be in Haliburton, as part of the Bradford High team which has reached the Gore Insurance Schoolboys Provincials. You can follow the team's progress, as Coach Peter Fudge will be posting game reports, on our club facebook page. If you would like to follow the complete bonspiel, results they can be found on this link www.gorecurling.comThe Bradford Curling Club always welcomes new sponsors to the club and we are pleased to announce The Dominion Insurance Company and SWB Insurance in Newmarket, with Reg Bateman as part owner, have joined our list of sponsors....As always we ask you to consider our sponsors if they supply a product for which you are in the market....The club has retained Dominion as their insurer, at a large savings, this being done through a program offered through the OCA.....We are still in desperate need of bartenders, check the sign-up sheet on the kitchen door for a date when you can get your bar duty done, remember when you do your bar duty your bar cheque is returned and will not be cashed.....In early June CYOR curler Chris Kendall is taking part in a 200 km 2 day cycling fundraiser to 'Conquer Cancer', he has pledged to raise $2500., Chris is looking for our help. Information is on our facebook page and will be on the website very shortly.....Curlers are needed for the Mixed Doubles bonspiel set for Feb. 23rd, contact Carolyn Johnstone, to make you familiar with the event the rules will be on the website home page shortly.....The Spinal Cord Injury (SCI) fundraiser is full again this year, thanks to everyone who has entered. It goes this Saturday, if you are not curling in it drop by for a coffee and take a look at the many items which are in the Silent Auction, this part of it takes place in the Community Centre. Also Ken Gregory's complete Ontario Championship team will be taking part in the bonspiel, come out and see our wheelchair team in action.....Until next time 'Jerk The Joker' was won Monday night, two people decided to split the pot, as a result Terry McCarthy and Robert Vaughan went home each $1575.00 richer.
