

Bradford Curling Club

March 6th, 2014

Vol. 4 - Issue 10

Hello again, the sun is out in full fashion, what more could we ask for, how about above freezing temperatures, that would be a start.....Glad to report our friend Peter Davy is coming along really well after his hip replacement surgery, drop him an email I am sure he would like to hear from you.....The Bradford HS boy's team downed Parry Sound on Wednesday to take the Georgian Bay championship and earn a trip to OFFSSA. Leaving for North Bay in a few weeks are Ian and Connor Fudge, Doug Thomson and Ryan Gratton. If they curl as well in the Provincials as they did in the GBSSA game they should do very well, coaches are Roger Sorenson and Peter Fudge. Good curling boys.....Great to see some of the Sunday night beginners sparing in the week night curling, and doing very well I might add, this league is a feather in the cap for the BCC and a tribute to those who are running it.....Bill Bennett has put out information on the Spring Golf Tournament, it can be seen on the website under News and Events, this fills up quick so get your entry in to Bill right away.....Also mark Friday April 11th on your calendar, that is the date for the Annual Banquet. It is being held this year at the Community Centre, more information will be on the Home page of the website shortly. The banquet is open to anyone, so bring along a friend or two.....Ken Gregory's wheelchair team was at the Ontario Winter Games in Orillia last week, they started out at 3 and 0 but came up with a flu bug and had to settle for a 3 and 2 finish. It was a great season for Ken, Collinda, Jon and Doug and we are proud to have them curling out of Bradford.....Also Jane Hooper-Perroud is off to the Canadian Senior Ladies in Yellowknife at the end of the month, playing on a rink skipped by Marilyn Bodogh. Results can be followed on the CCA website.....While on the topic of the CCA, everything is settled so it would be appreciated if those who offered to take part in the CCA Donation program would send their cheques in now, if you have not already done so.....With schedule play winding down in all leagues pretty soon, all playoff schedules and results will be posted on the home page of the website, up near the top of the page. This way it is easier to access, rather than have to go to the Leagues area, also the season results can still remain on the website, without any confusion....We are in the midst of organizing a Macgregor's fundraiser, this is a great deal for your BBQ needs and the product is fantastic. Watch for information both on the bulletin board and website, it will happen fast with delivery hoping to be mid-April.....Until next time, the Brier is not doing anything for me this year, I am watching it religiously but it is just not getting me pumped up. Also from what I hear the World's Ladies, set for Saint John, is going to be missing many of the top teams, Eve Muirhead being one of them.
