

Well how are you feeling, it seems that every year it is harder to work your way into shape when you change from summer to winter activities, but at least we are still actively doing something.....Make sure the 24th is marked on your calendar to attend the Q & A after the Directors meeting, it is no secret we have things to solve and maybe you have the solution, so plan to attend.....Schedules are on the web site for all leagues which are now in play so make sure you have printed your copy....Just heard that the Beginners League is now full with eight teams and play is set to start after completion of the "Learn To Curl" clinics, that date being November 17. Way to go Bob.....Don't forget this weekend there is some good curling all day Saturday and Sunday, on TSN, it is "The Road to The Roar" from Kitchener, as of right now John Morris and Kelly Scott have qualified for the playoffs. Two teams from both the Men's and Ladies go from there to the "Roar of the Rings" in Winnipeg.....Congratulations to Russ Gale and his committee, they have filled our newest bonspiel, the Trophy Case Turkey Bonspiel, set for Nov. 23. There are 16 teams, which includes 6 outside teams, one coming as far away as Rochester NY.....Have you a young child, or more, who just has not taken to hockey as a wintertime sport, If so we have a great Youth program which goes from 1:00 to 4:00 every Sunday afternoon and takes in anyone interested in giving curling a try, even if they have not seen a curling club first hand. Drop by with them to take a look and you will not believe how it works on the pocket book.....The Wednesday Ladies are still trying to fill one team, if you would like to curl a bit more but can't commit to every week it's not a problem, Contact Kendall Balchen and see if you can help out on an occasion basis...While on the subject of Ladies curling they are holding a Spaaaaaspiel on Nov. Nov. 30, have about 10 teams right now but would like 16. Check out the website, under Bonspiels, or see the poster on the board at the club.....The Men's CYOR Seeding round wraps up next week, still some spots left to be determined for the first schedule positioning, check the website the day after your league play ends as the new schedules will be posted then.....If you are looking to kill an hour or so on Saturday drop by the club and see just what "Mixed Doubles" is all about, I believe play starts at about 9:00 and goes until the supper hour.....And next weekend up the road in Stroud some of our own Bradford curlers will be taking part in the 15th Annual COMCO Cash Spiel, starting Thursday night and going through until Sunday afternoon, there will be some good curling being played.....Until next time, make sure you check out the "Support our Sponsors" module on the Home page of the website, these are people who help make curling possible in Bradford. Support them.
