

Hello and does life get any better, the TSN coverage of The Roar of the Rings is fantastic, keep it coming.....Don't forget our BBQ Fundraiser draw is just over a week away, tickets are available at the bar.....The Leads and Seconds bonspiel poster is now on the board, sign up soon as this one fills up in a hurry, one draw is already full, date is January 25th.....On the same subject the ever popular Carpet One 1 on 1 is posted as well and goes on Dec. 28 and 29, only 32 spots for this one.....Is it just me or is the incessant hand pumping celebrations by Team Jacobs wearing thin on others as well, really like the team and wish them well, but is it all really part of our game.....Congratulations to the Amyotte family on the arrival of their son Brayden, the first born for Mallory and Shawn and a future BCC Little Rocker.....How about our new scraper, Gary Lamb came through with his proposal and the ice crew is jubilant over it, these guys are getting a bit spoiled....Still need a few members to donate through the CCA to pay for it, check the website for details.....Hats off to the Trophy Case committee, headed by Russ Gale, for the great job they did on the first ever Trophy Case Turkey bonspiel, filled with 16 teams including one from as far away as Rochester, four teams took home turkeys.....Also to the Ladies who a week later had 6 outside teams take part in the Spaaaaaspiel, all coming away from having a great day. Thanks to all the Volunteers who helped out.....It is events like this which really help the club, bringing in outside curlers and showing them that BCC can be real good hosts, still a few more to go this year, if you have not experienced bonspiel curling get involved,.....Know a friend or neighbor who would like to try curling, but missed the season's start, second half memberships are now available with play starting about the third week in January.....The M & M Beginners league is off and running with a full draw, plus many spares, this league continues to amaze and just have to mention the great effort Bob Kelsey puts into the organizational aspect of the league, plus the enthusiasm of the curlers....BCC is hosting the OCA Ladies Challenge Round on the weekend of Dec. 20-22, this will include the top Ladies teams in Ontario, who have not already qualified for the Scotties. As all games are timed, we need volunteers , so if you can help out over the weekend for a few hours let me know through enquiries@bradfordcurlingclub.ca , plus you will get to see some real good curling .....Our Tuesday Day Ladies have kept the program going this year but are still shy on numbers, ladies if you have someone you know who is watching TSN and is wondering what it is all about, bring them out just for the day, maybe they will get the bug.....Love that Timmies commercial on Roar to the Rings " A Little Taste of Home".....Until next time, remember you new curlers, point the handle at the skip's arm and release at twelve o'clock, it's that easy, sometimes.
